

Privacy Policy

Global Methane Hub Stichting ('GMH') is a public benefit foundation incorporated under the laws of The Netherlands. We work with different stakeholders towards the goal of achieving rapid systemic reductions in methane emissions. We don't collect personal information on a structural basis, however, we may collect personal data incidentally, when you subscribe to our newsletter, or submit your data to us at an event. We will always process data in compliance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This privacy policy explains how our organization uses the personal data we collect.

What data do we collect?

GMH may collect the following data:

- Personal identification information (name, email address, phone number, etc.)
- Professional information related to your capacity, experience, expertise, when working together or when exploring opportunities to work together.

How do we collect your data?

You directly provide us with most of the data we collect. We collect data and process data when you:

- Share your data by email or otherwise, to stay in touch, receive updates, or in connection with your attendance of events we organize or coordinate.
- Voluntarily complete a survey or provide feedback via any of the platforms we use, or via email.
- Share your data by email or otherwise, when applying for a role at GMH.

We may also receive your data indirectly from organisations we partner with, or from contractors we use.

How will we use your data?

GMH collects your data so that we can:

- Keep you informed or send you updates in connection with the work we do
- Contact you in connection with the implementation of the work towards our mission

How do we store your data?

GMH stores your data securely. All our data is encrypted and subject to strict protocols and technical security measures.

GMH will keep your personal data for a maximum period of 1 year after our interaction stops. Once this period has expired we will automatically delete your data from our systems.

What are your data protection rights?

GMH would like to make sure you are fully aware of your data protection rights under GDPR. Every user is entitled to the following:

The right to access - You have the right to request copies of your personal data.

The right to rectification - You have the right to request that we correct any information you believe is inaccurate. You also have the right to request us to complete information you believe is incomplete.

The right to erasure - You have the right to request that we erase your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to restrict processing - You have the right to request that GMH restricts the processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to object to processing - You have the right to object to GMH's processing of your personal data, under certain conditions.

The right to data portability - You have the right to request that GMH transfer the data that we have collected to another organization, or directly to you, under certain conditions.

If you make a request, we have one month to respond to you. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at our email: privacy@globalmethanehub.org

Privacy policies of other websites

The GMH website may refer to, or contains links to, other websites. Please note that our privacy policy applies only to our own website, so if you click on a link to another website, you should read their privacy policy.

Changes to our privacy policy

GMH keeps its privacy policy under regular review and places any updates on this web page. This privacy policy was last updated on 1st November 2026.

How to contact us

If you have any questions about our privacy policy, the data we hold on you, or you would like to exercise one of your data protection rights, please do not hesitate to contact us:
